

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I am writing as the current president of Rotary Club Basel International (RCBI) to recommend the organisation, CORRIDORS OF PEACE (CoP) for your consideration.

CoP is a non-governmental organisation, headquartered in Switzerland and working in the Chad Republic.

As part of their ongoing projects to support an end to violence against women, girls and vulnerable populations, CoP designed and implemented a project, between 2109 and 2022, with the support of RCBI, Switzerland and local monitoring by Rotary Club N'djamena Toumaï, Chad.

The project placed particular focus on empowerment of marginalized women and girls. It aided their resocialization and reintegration into normal life, enabling them to become literate, and economically independent. The 3-year project trained a group of over 100 women in the Guereda region in eastern Chad in literacy, sewing, agriculture and rearing livestock. The project received a Rotary global grant, commenced with assessment in 2019 and was very successfully implemented in the region, with an external audit in February 2021. North East Chad is a very difficult region for humanitarian activities, but CoP was able to adapt and deliver within the time frame.

Given the success of the project and the continued high demand in the region, I am happy to endorse and recommend Corridors of Peace to you as an organization that is committed and passionate to end violence to women and girls in the region.

Should you need further information, please don't hesitate to contact me as below.

Sincerely yours
